PRESS RELEASE

M&A Training Leader, The Harbour Club, invited Clear Capital Partners CEO to speak at 1st U.S. event in Miami.

Orange Beach, March 7, 2019: Clear Capital Partners' CEO, Chris Isbell, was recently invited to speak at the Premiere/Global M&A training program called, "The Harbour Club" at their 1st U.S. event in Miami, Florida.

The Harbour Club, founded in Singapore by Jeremy Harbour in 2009, is an experiential training program teaching people how to find, buy, and sell businesses. It has a major footprint across Europe, and has recently expanded focus to the U.S.

"I had the great pleasure of first meeting Chris about a year ago in London. Since then, we have been in regular contact and when I recently ran a workshop in Miami on ethical, small business M&A's, he was my go-to Speaker in the United States," said Jeremy Harbour of the Harbour Club.

"With so much acquisition opportunity in Small to Medium Sized Companies in the U.S., it's exciting to work with entrepreneurs in the M&A marketplace. Our involvement in the Harbour Club has been extremely profitable." said Chris Isbell, CEO of Clear Capital Partners.
