PRESS RELEASE

Clear Capital Partners' eighth childcare center acquisition is now a "done deal".

Orange Beach, Alabama, June 29, 2020: Clear Capital Partners, a merger and acquisition firm located in Orange Beach, Alabama, is pleased to announce its acquisition of "Riverside Children's Academy", located in Bluffton, South Carolina.

Riverside Children's Academy has been serving families in the Hilton Head Island area since 2014 and offers child care and early education curriculum for up to ninety-nine children. Riverside provides a rich environment where children become independent, confident, lifelong learners and offers a positive, childcare and pre-school experience which fosters a love of learning within a safe and nurturing community.

Speaking of her experience with Clear Capital Partners, Courtney Budrow, former owner of Riverside, said "Childcare has always been my personal passion and owning and operating Riverside Children's Academy for the past seven years has been an amazing experience. I absolutely would not entrust it to just anyone. When Clear Capital Partners and I connected, I knew from their genuine interest and professionalism that Riverside would reach the next level of success! My experience in dealing with Clear Capital has been seamless and I know, beyond any doubt, that I made the best decision to merge with them."

"Riverside Children's Academy is the rare childcare center that has all the advantages you'd expect and require of a top-notch childcare facility; location, staff, and community. We are absolutely excited to bring on this gem as the newest addition to our childcare portfolio and look forward to watching it grow and thrive in the future", said Chris Isbell, CEO of Clear Capital Partners.
